Allies Cruel, Is Charge-Treat Our Men as We Treat Foes, Berlin Plea

Berlin, Nov. 3 (by wireless to Say-ville). The Reichstag to-day dis-cussed the treatment of war prisoners. Prince von Schoenaich, of the National Liberty party, says the Overseas News Agency, reported as follows on the pro-ceedings of the committee which con-sidered that question:

With great sadness and prefound indignation, the committee took notice of the great sufferings of Germans made prisoner. This is especially true made prisoner. This is especially true of Russia, where numerous cases of brutal treatment have been proved; and also in British camps, from which there are numerous complaints.

"The prisoners often are forced to work under degrading conditions. Frequently they must toll in 40 degrees of cold, or under a burning sun, and often physical brutality is added to this. The food in many places is most scanty, deficient and badly prepared."

Prince von Schoenaich acknowledged the kind exertions of the Holy See to improve the fate of the prisoners. Mathias Erzberger, leader of the Clerical Centre, expressed thanks to the Pope and the population of Switzerland for humane actions toward war prisoners.

The whole House agreed when it was stated that beyond any doubt Germans would be glad if their imprisoned coun-trymen were treated everywhere as well as war prisoners in Germany.

GERMANS CENTRE ALL ON RUMANIAN DRIVE

Paris, Nov. 3.-Important conclusions are drawn here from the evacuation of Fort Vaux by the Germans. The chief of these is the belief that the Germans, considering the Western front as now of comparatively secondary importance, intend to reduce their operations on the Verdun front to a minimum and will direct their main energies to the campaign against Rumania. The newly established Ministry of Munitions in Germany is regarded by military observers here as the result of the Germans having experienced the superiority of the Entente Allies in artillery and munitions along the Somme front.

"KEEPING the FAITH" Sent onGimbel Brothers Request The New York Tribune Samuel Hopkins Adams

N OCTOBER 3, 1916, Gimbel Brothers were notified that their advertising could no longer be accepted by The New York Tribune—an incident that marks the latest development in this paper's finish-fight for truth in advertising.

Because Gimbels' annual advertising expenditure is large should have no influence on the truthfulness of their copy. Nor does the fact that their contract was one of the largest carried by The Tribune have any influence with this newspaper. We have a responsibility to our readers.

Mr. Samuel Hopkins Adams gave the facts in a powerful article published in The Sunday Tribune of October 22nd-one of the best he has ever written—one that will help advertisers realize just how resolutely The Tribune is living up to its motto.

A request, accompanied by 5c in stamps, brings you a copy in reprint form. The edition is limited.
